

Secrets, Silences and Sources: Five Chinese-Australian Family Histories

edited by Sophie Couchman

Secrets, Silences and Sources tells the stories of a range of Chinese immigrants who established families and made homes in nineteenth-century Australia. Chapters explore notions of identity, family secrets and the pain of exclusion. These personal histories are told by members of the Chinese Australian Family Historians of Victoria (CAFHOV). Contributors also share the resources they drew on to construct these stories in the hope that this will inspire others in their research.

Table of Contents

- Foreword
- Dedication
- Introduction - Sophie Couchman
- Chinese-Australian history vs huaqiao history: Chinese in north Queensland: - Kevin Wong Hoy
- Unfolding the silence: James Lee Wah (1832 – 1909): Chinese goldfields miner and Anglican missionary - Chris Lee
- The wives of Hin Yung and Ah Whay: A goldfields story in the making - Robyn Ansell
- History, heritage and identity - James Tynycross
- Tong family networks revealed through the camera's lens - Sophie Couchman

RRP: A$15.00 plus p & h

ISBN 978-0-6483720-0-4
81 pages, paperback
black & white illustrations

Mail to:

CAFHOV Secretary
PO Box 18214
Melbourne, Victoria 3001, Australia

Email: cafhov.secretary@gmail.com

Web: www.cafhov.com

Complete this order form for your copy/copies of Secrets, Silences and Sources

Name: _____ Phone number: _____

Delivery address: _____

Please send me _____ copy/copies at A$15.00 each _____ plus A$8.50 postage and handling within Australia

Total _____

I have transferred A$_____ via internet banking to Westpac Bank under account name 'Chinese Australian Family Historians of Victoria Inc', BSB 033-062, Account No. 319325, quoting my name (eg: J Smith)

Order will be processed once payment is received.